

BRIDGE THE GAP COMMUNICATION WORKSHOPS

Workshops, Keynotes, and Coaching for Administrators, Educators, and Boards who need Breakthrough Communication and Collaboration Tools to Transform Challenging Conversations, Relationships, and Culture.

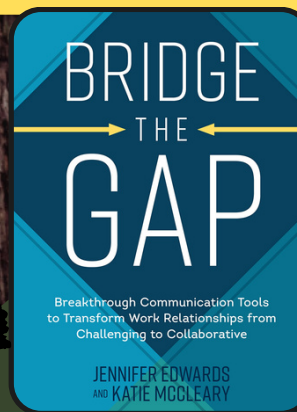

Workshops

- Healthy Relationships: Essential Conversation and Conflict Management Skills for Leaders and Administrators
- Moving to Collaboration: Navigating Critical Conversations with boards, staff, and administrators
- Engaging Students: Breakdown to Breakthrough Conversations and Strategies to Help Students Succeed
- Creating Spaces for Belonging and Building Functional, Diverse Teams: Using the Art and Science of Neurochemistry and Communication

When curiosity is operationalized, you and your team can use it as a tool to responsibly manage conflict and change the quality and productivity of any interaction. Rooted in the neuroscience of curiosity, former public school educators, Jennifer Edwards and Katie McCleary equip your team with essential skills, and conversation starters to help you and your team communicate and collaborate better with anyone, anywhere, anytime. They will equip you with the power to positively change the dynamics of your interactions and relationships, increasing the quality and output of the collaborative work.

Katie McCleary

"We take education seriously—and our time with Bridge the Gap was truly impactful. Even in the virtual environment, they made the material come alive by intentionally engaging us in a conversation and equipping us with ways to have better conversations internally and externally."

Dr. Michael Marion, Jr., Director
U.S. Department of Education | Federal Student Aid

Learning Objectives

Understand the dynamics of human behavior and reaction during times of conflict and how to disrupt yourself and others from being hijacked from negative reactions.

To optimally engage with your teachers, supervisors, team members, peers, and Board members by discovering how to harness your curiosity and strengthening your perceptions.

Learn how "invisible forces" (biological, psychological, sociological, and ecological) impede quality communication in these polarizing times.

Develop a new communication approach to having meaningful and productive conversations that move your work forward.

Receive Bridge the Gap's Top 10 Pro Communication Tips to become a leader in all your relationships.
