

Amy Peterman, Ed.D., Consultant
National Center for Executive Leadership and School Board Development

Areas of Expertise

Advising/Coaching of Elementary and Secondary Principals
Site Leadership Development | Curriculum/Instruction Leadership | LCAP Development
Grading Reform | College Readiness | Assessment & Accountability | Team Building

Dr. Amy Peterman specializes in providing district-level leadership in the areas of assessment and accountability, equitable student outcomes, curriculum and instruction, and college readiness. She has presented workshops for teachers, administrators, and board members on LCAP development, California School Dashboard results, grading reform, Professional Learning Community process implementation, improving college readiness and transition, and self-care for educators and leaders.

Dr. Peterman currently serves as the Deputy Superintendent of Educational Services in Ceres Unified School District. Prior to this, she served as the Assistant Superintendent of both Business Services and Educational Services, was an elementary and secondary school site administrator and principal, as well as a classroom teacher.

Dr. Peterman has served as a mentor for new administrators through the Stanislaus County Administrative Induction Program, as well as a leadership coach for site principals. She was recognized by the Association of California School Administrators as the 2021 California Central Office Administrator of the Year.

Dr. Peterman earned a Bachelor's Degree in English from CSU Stanislaus, Single Subject Teaching Credential from UC Davis, Master's in Education and Administrative Credential from National University, and Ed.D. in Educational Leadership from University of the Pacific.